

DriverLog

What's New in DriverLog

Track your money, in seconds — built for drivers, not accountants.

FOR DRIVERS USING THE APP

July 2026 · Author: GRIT

OBJECTIVE

Why DriverLog exists

One question, answered fast: “was this shift worth it?”

Built for the road

- Log a shift in seconds — revenue, fuel, done
- Works with no signal; syncs when you're back online
- Free to use, forever — no subscription, no catch

Speaks your language

- Full Thai and English, switch anytime
- Works with Grab, Lineman, Bolt, Shopee, and taxi jobs
- Simple, practical numbers — no jargon

WHAT'S NEW

Now live in your app (v2.6.3)

Weekly recap

See this week's earnings
vs last week

Multi- vehicle

Track more than one car or bike

Dark mode

Easier on the eyes for late shifts

CSV export

Download your monthly numbers anytime

Also new for you

- A friendlier first screen if you're brand new, with a one-tap "log your first shift" button
- Profit tip on every shift: margin %, $/hour, break-even fuel price; night shifts count correctly
- Pick your platform and job type in two taps; send feedback right from the app anytime

YOUR DATA, YOUR TRUST

How we keep it fair

Our promise

- We never sell your individual data — not now, not ever
- Core tracking features stay free, always
- You choose: work as a guest (fully local) or with an account

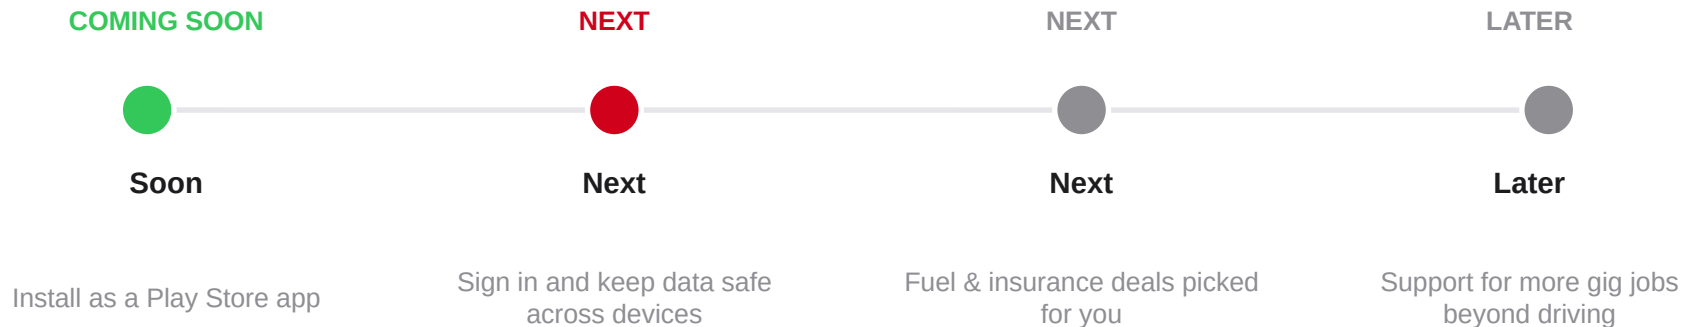

How the app earns

- A small, non-intrusive ad on your dashboard
- Optional partner deals coming (fuel cards, insurance) — always opt-in
- You never pay a subscription to track your shifts

WHAT'S COMING

Built with your feedback in mind

Tell us what you need

- The next features come from what real drivers ask for — use the in-app feedback button any time

DriverLog

Built for you, one shift at a time.

Thanks for using DriverLog — keep the feedback coming.
